

Disney's Grand Californian Hotel & Spa

ANAHEIM, Calif. Disney's Grand Californian Hotel & Spa is a luxury retreat with a theme and architectural style reminiscent of the California Arts & Crafts era at the turn of the 20th century. Conveniently located in the center of the Disneyland Resort, Disney's Grand Californian Hotel & Spa offers supreme accommodations and amenities to ensure each stay is magical. Many rooms offer breathtaking views of Disney California Adventure Park and Downtown Disney, both of which are majestically lit up at night. The hotel also offers a well-equipped gym and three restaurants – including the award-winning Napa Rose – along with relaxing lounges, a spa, sparkling pools, and high-tech meeting rooms and spaces.

VACATION VILLAS: The first Disney Vacation Club Villas on the West Coast opened at the Grand Californian in 2009. The 50 two-bedroom equivalent vacation villas, part of Disney's innovative vacation-ownership program, include kitchens, living and dining areas and other home-like amenities.

VIP ACCESS: Disney's Grand Californian Hotel & Spa has a private entrance to Disney California Adventure and gives hotel guests VIP treatment and even quicker access to fun-filled adventures. Guests staying at Disneyland Resort hotels also may take advantage of Magic Mornings, which gives guests early entry to select Disneyland attractions.

NO BETTER WAY TO RELAX: Enjoy a treatment at Mandara Spa, or sit by the Fountain Pool, an oasis of tranquility where you can enjoy the soothing sounds of the artisan turtle fountain.

DATE NIGHT WITHOUT A CARE: Disney's Grand California Hotel & Spa is conveniently located footsteps away from the Downtown Disney District, which offers shopping and dining diversions, along with theaters and music for entertainment. Exclusively offered to hotel guests, Pinocchio's Workshop is a licensed care facility that provides onsite care services for children 5-12 years of age from 5 pm to midnight (for a fee).
