

Downtown Disney District is Full of Fun Dining, Entertainment and Shopping Delights

Colorful and Energetic Shopping District Provides the Gateway to Disneyland and Disney California Adventure Parks

With live entertainment, lush landscaping and innovative architecture, Downtown Disney District is the ideal location for a shopping spree, a dining excursion or simply a stroll through a unique Disney environment. Downtown Disney, a public esplanade leading to the entrances of Disneyland and Disney California Adventure Parks, offers a lively, colorful array of innovative restaurants, interesting shops and dynamic entertainment venues.

The 300,000-plus square-foot Downtown Disney District (no admission fee required) includes such distinctive locales as ESPN Zone, House of Blues, La Brea Bakery™ Café, The LEGO Store, Rainforest Café, Ralph Brennan's Jazz Kitchen, Build-a-Bear Workshop, AMC Theatres, and, of course, World of Disney Store. Other dining highlights include the Mediterranean-inspired Catal Restaurant & Uva Bar; Tortilla Jo's, offering tempting Mexican specialties and music; the festive Naples Ristorante e Pizzeria, featuring the famed cuisine of southern Italy; and Napolini, a gourmet Italian deli.

Downtown Disney features over 50 shops, restaurants, boutiques and snack locations, plus a travel center with offices of the Walt Disney Travel Company, Travelex and Alamo Rent-A-Car.

With a diverse menu of unique retail, dining and entertainment options, Downtown Disney offers something for everyone. AMC Theatres is a nationwide operator of popular multiplex cinemas and entertainment centers. Its Downtown Disney locale features a 12-screen, Art Deco inspired megaplex theater, including an IMAX screen and featuring stadium-style seating and the finest in moviegoer amenities.

The House of Blues offers a unique twist on its blues-jazz based restaurant and club, featuring Delta-inspired cuisine and a variety of music. Rainforest Café, "A Wild Place to Shop and Eat" offers distinctive food, entertainment and unique shopping in a tropical rain forest setting featuring a combination of live and animated wildlife and other special effects.

Combining a spicy mix of traditional New Orleans cuisine and hot jazz, Ralph Brennan's Jazz Kitchen at Downtown Disney is presented by The Ralph Brennan Restaurant Group, a tradition in the New Orleans' fine-dining restaurant scene. With its French Quarter inspired architecture, the restaurant is an authentic slice of the "big easy" in the middle of Southern California.

World-renowned chef Joachim Splichal, known through Southern California for his European-influenced fine cuisine served in the Patina and Pinot restaurants, presents Catal Restaurant & Uva Bar at Downtown Disney. The two-story restaurant serves the flavors of the Mediterranean in a relaxing and chic environment.

Naples Ristorante e Pizzeria brings an authentic taste of Southern Italy to Downtown Disney. The restaurant features an open kitchen in which diners can observe the preparation of a variety of Italian dishes, including pizza baked in wood-burning ovens. Nearby is Napolini, a gourmet Italian deli offering fresh salads, pastas, pizzas and sandwiches.

Tortilla Jo's showcases traditional Mexican dishes, strolling mariachis playing folk ballads and an outdoor cantina serving margaritas and sangrias.

La Brea Bakery and Café, known throughout Los Angeles for its unique breads and pastries, brings the bakery/cafe concept to Downtown Disney.

ESPN Zone at Downtown Disney is the ultimate sports dining and entertainment destination. The Zone is composed of three distinct areas: the Studio Grill, serving great American grill food in an authentic ESPN studio setting; the Screening Room, offering any game on the air in the ultimate sports-viewing environment; and the Sports Arena, which challenges fans with the latest in interactive and competitive attractions.

A colorful, distinct and diverse collection of shops adds to the late night and daytime fun of Downtown Disney. At 40,000 square-feet, World of Disney™ at Downtown Disney is one of the biggest Disney shopping experiences on earth, second only to its sister store at the Walt Disney World® Resort in Florida. It offers an incredible selection of Disney toys, souvenirs, accessories and collectibles in a variety of colorful and imaginatively decorated themed shopping areas.
