Disneyland Park Fact Sheet

Dedication: “To all who come to this happy place: Welcome! Disneyland is your land. Here age relives fond memories of the past, and here youth may savor the challenge and promise of the future. Disneyland is dedicated to the ideals, the dreams and the hard facts that have created America ... with the hope that it will be a source of joy and inspiration to all the world.”

- Dedication read by Walt Disney on opening day, July 17, 1955

Location: Disneyland Park, “The Happiest Place on Earth,” is located approximately 27 miles southeast of Los Angeles in Anaheim, Calif.

Hours: Disneyland is scheduled to open 365 days a year. The most current information for hours and entertainment schedules is available at Disneyland.com and the Disneyland app.*

Lands: The magic of Disneyland Park comes to life in nine themed lands.

- Main Street, U.S.A.: Here, contemporary life gives way to the quaint and reassuring charms of turn-of-the-century America. It is the essence of hometown life that greeted the dawn of the 20th century.
- Tomorrowland: This intriguing realm of imagination, discovery and wonder features a landscape of whirling spaceships (Astro Orbiter), zooming rocket vehicles (Star Tours: The Adventures Continue, Space Mountain) and racing roadsters (Autopia).
- Adventureland: This realm of exploration is a collage of far-off places. Aspiring explorers can discover a home nestled in the branches of a giant tree (Adventureland Treehouse inspired by Walt Disney’s Swiss Family Robinson), the tropical magic of Polynesia (Walt Disney’s Enchanted Tiki Room), the exotic rivers of the world (Jungle Cruise) and the steamy jungles of India (Indiana Jones Adventure).
- Frontierland: A robust panorama of America’s pioneer past, from the bustling riverfronts of the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers of the late 1700s (Columbia Sailing Ship, Mark Twain Riverboat, Tom Sawyer Island) to the dusty southwest deserts of the 1880s (Big Thunder Mountain Railroad, Golden Horseshoe).
- Fantasyland: Enchanted tales of childhood adapted from classic Disney animated films come to life in this timeless realm of imagination. Within this magical Old World setting, guests can fly to Never Land (Peter Pan’s Flight), behold beloved Disney fairytales (Storytelling at Royal Theatre) see an elephant fly (Dumbo the Flying Elephant), visit dazzling mines (Snow White’s Enchanted Wish) or attend a mad tea party (Alice in Wonderland).
- New Orleans Square: The Paris of the American frontier, this land evokes the Crescent City as it was more than 150 years ago. Within its winding streets and quaint shops, elegance and charm mingle comfortably with jazz, restless spirits (Haunted Mansion) and marauding buccaneers (Pirates of the Caribbean).
- Critter Country: This shady glen is nestled in a lazy corner of the backwoods. Guests visiting this bend of the river can discover the wonders of the last frontier with Davy Crockett’s Explorer Canoes. Also residing in this land are Winnie the Pooh and his many friends in the Hundred Acre Wood (The Many Adventures of Winnie the Pooh).

- Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge: Guests are transported to a galaxy far, far away on a journey to Batuu, a unique location in a story that began in 1977 with the first Star Wars. Guests become part of the story as they sample galactic food and beverages, enter an intriguing collection of merchant shops and take the controls of the most famous ship in the galaxy aboard Millennium Falcon: Smugglers Run. In addition, they may experience an epic battle against the First Order on Star Wars: Rise of the Resistance.
- Mickey's Toontown: From adventures with some favorite characters (Mickey & Minnie's Runaway Railway, Chip 'n' Dale's GADGETcoaster, Roger Rabbit's Car Toon Spin) to open greenery perfect for a picnic, families can play together and make memories at the reimagined Mickey's Toontown. This land, which reopened March 19, 2023, includes space to unwind, interactive play areas, character sightings and delightful dining for guests of all ages.

Attractions and Entertainment: Disneyland Park opened July 17, 1955, with 18 major attractions. Today, there are dozens of adventures and attractions for guests to choose from. Tiana's Bayou Adventure, a fun musical attraction inspired by the Walt Disney Animation Studios film "The Princess and the Frog," will open in 2024 at Disneyland Park.

Entertainment highlights include Storytelling at Royal Theatre, The Dapper Dans, the whimsical "Magic Happens" parade, celebrating magical moments from legendary Disney stories and the nighttime spectacular "Fantasmic!" returning on May 24.

Fun Facts:

- When Walt Disney began constructing Disneyland Park, King Arthur Carrousel became the cornerstone of the design. The attraction and most of its horses date back more than 90 years.
- Disneyland created the first daily operating monorail in the Western Hemisphere. It opened June 14, 1959.
- Disneyland began celebrating seasonal holidays in 1997 with the re-theming of "it's a small world" as "it's a small world" Holiday. This was followed by Haunted Mansion Holiday for the Halloween and Christmas seasons beginning in 2001.
